

2015 Outstanding Seniors

Mackenzie Marques

Gulf High School

GPA: 4.8095

Extracurricular Activities:

- President of National Honor Society
- President of Interact Club
- President of National History Honor Society
- Co-coordinator of World F.A.I.R.
- Varsity Volleyball Team

Scholarship:

Not only has Mackenzie maintained a 4.0 G.P.A. throughout high school, but she also has done so while taking academically rigorous A.P. and I.B. courses. She has received the high score of a 5 on seven of the eight A.P. exams she has taken. Also, she has been recognized as a National Merit Semi-finalist based on her P.S.A.T. scores.

Leadership:

Mackenzie is the president of Gulf High School's National Honor Society, National History Honor Society, and Interact Club. She is also the secretary of the Leo Club. This year, she co-coordinated the World F.A.I.R. (Food and Art for International Relief), an event that raised $7,000 to donate to the local Nourish to Flourish Program and the international medical organization Doctors Without Borders.

Service:

Mackenzie has been volunteering at Regional Medical Center Bayonet Point for five years and has experience as a courier, a unit receptionist, and a dietitian's assistant. She volunteers weekly at a soup kitchen, and monthly as a docent at the West Pasco Historical Society. She also has used her affinity for math to tutor students at Chasco Middle School.

Citizenship:

Mackenzie has participated in peer-led math tutoring at Gulf High School since her sophomore year. Along with her involvement in the Society of Young Philosophers, she has participated in and helped organize Skype calls with Dr. Noam Chomsky and the President of the American Civil Liberties Union, Susan Herman. As a member of the I.B. Program, she is a mentor to I.B. underclassmen.
