

ACADEMY OF Early Childhood Education

at Gulf High School

Children are our future, and to reach their full potential they need a nurturing support system that helps them to grow into the leaders of tomorrow. Childcare professionals are crucial during the early stages of development, and to flourish they must adopt an understanding of various regulations, and develop the patience and empathy necessary to deal with complex emotions and VARYING PERSONALITIES.

The Academy of Early Childhood Education prepares high school students to enter the childcare field. Students will learn childcare rules and regulations, principles of child development, trends and issues in early childhood education and classroom management techniques, and become familiar with an array of learning environments. Students also will partner with local daycare providers and our own voluntary pre-kindergarten programs.

CTE...Students Perspective

"My CTE classes prepared me for college and my career because it was through my CTE classes that I figured out what I wanted to do with my life."

"The practical training and experience that I had in CTE not only provided me with a part-time job throughout college (which allowed me to graduate without debt), but also was the major factor that enabled me to get the job I have now, as an Electrical Engineer."

"The world around us is becoming more competitive in the workplace, where the best qualified person will receive the job. I believe participating in a Career Academy has put me in front of the line."
